

Dorsey & Whitney Foundation Scholarships

Are you looking for a way to use your law degree to peacefully mitigate and resolve violent conflict? Do you want to spend your summer networking one-on-one with some of the most influential leaders in the international justice field? Apply today for a Dorsey & Whitney Foundation Scholarship to attend the 2015 The Hague Symposium on Post-Conflict Transitions & International Justice.

The Dorsey & Whitney law firm honors and appreciates the law industry tradition of using specialized abilities and resources for the benefit of others. Through a generous contribution from the Dorsey & Whitney Foundation that pays tribute to the firm's values, the International Peace & Security Institute (IPSI) is pleased to be able to offer 2 Dorsey & Whitney Foundation Scholarships for the 2015 The Hague Symposium on Post-Conflict Transitions & International Justice worth $2500 each.

The Hague Symposium on Post-Conflict Transitions & International Justice

When: July 4 – July 25, 2015

Why: Transitioning a society from violence to peace is one of the most difficult processes in our field. To be effective leader, you will need a broad understanding of available mechanisms, options, and theories, as well as a deep understanding of why some transitions are successful and others are failures. Train with IPSI to gain a cross-sectoral perspective and a global network of practitioners/academics.

What: Intensive training by world leaders in the skills necessary to holistically restructure a post-conflict society, with a special focus on mechanisms of justice, through formal lectures, site visits to International Tribunals and Courts, and interactive simulations and workshops.

Where: Clingendael Institute for International Relations

You should apply if you are: An exceptional professional or lawyer, a graduate student, a law student, or an accomplished undergraduate.

Dorsey & Whitney Scholarship Application Due Date: Friday, February 27

Tuition: ~~$4350~~ $1850 for Dorsey & Whitney Foundation Scholarship recipients ($2500 scholarship)!

Webpage: <http://ipsinstitute.org/the-hague-2015/>

2015 Keynote Speaker: Justice Richard Goldstone

justice field today.

The first chief prosecutor of the International Criminal Tribunals for the former Yugoslavia and for Rwanda and chair of the South African Commission of Inquiry Regarding the Prevention of Public Violence and Intimidation (better known as the Goldstone Commission), Justice Goldstone is invited to speak openly with 2015 The Hague Symposium participants about his role in the development of the international justice field and the state of the transitional

The Hague Symposium Academic Coordinator: Prosecutor David Crane

From 2002-2005 David Crane was the founding Chief Prosecutor of the Special Court for Sierra Leone, an international war crimes tribunal, appointed to that position by the Secretary General of the United Nations, Kofi Annan. Serving with the rank of Undersecretary General, Professor Crane's mandate was to prosecute those who bear the greatest responsibility for war crimes, crimes against humanity, and other serious violations of international human rights committed during the civil war in Sierra Leone during the 1990's. Among those he indicted for those horrific crimes was the President of Liberia, Charles Taylor, the first sitting African head of state in history to be held accountable. Professor Crane was the first American since Justice Robert Jackson and Telford Taylor at Nuremberg in 1945, to be the Chief Prosecutor of an international war crimes tribunal. Professor Crane serves on IPSI's Board of Directors and advises the organization on matters related to international justice. David Crane was appointed a professor of practice at Syracuse University College of Law in the summer of 2006.

The Dorsey & Whitney Foundation Scholarship is EXTREMELY competitive.

- Scholarships are merit- and need-based
- Each Dorsey & Whitney Foundation Scholarship covers $2500 (a 57% savings!) of the total tuition. Scholarship recipients are responsible for covering the remaining $1850 of the tuition, as well as travel and accommodation costs.
- Scholarships are for tuition costs only and cannot be used in conjunction with any other reduction in fees offered by IPSI. Under no circumstances does IPSI provide scholarships for travel, visa costs, accommodations in The Hague, or food costs.

Criteria:

- Be between the ages of 22-35;
- Be currently enrolled in a JD or LLM program or equivalent;
- Be committed to a career in international justice;
- Currently be working on issues of peace and security;
- Demonstrate why you are uniquely suited to utilize IPSI's trainings to foster peace and security;
- Demonstrate financial need.

APPLY TODAY: <https://ipsinstitute.fluidreview.com/>

For more information about The Hague Symposium or the Dorsey & Whitney Foundation Scholarship, please contact Program Director Kate Elci at kelci@ipsinstitute.org.