

2017 Bologna Symposium Scholarship Criteria

Scholarship Application Deadline: May 10, 2017

Link: <http://www.ipsinstitute.org/symposiums/bologna-symposium-2017/>

Please read the below criteria to determine whether you qualify for any of the three scholarships.

IPSI scholarships are EXTREMELY competitive.

Scholarships are merit- and need-based

Scholarship applicants are permitted to apply to ONE Symposium per year; if you choose to apply for a scholarship to the Bologna Symposium, you are not permitted to also apply for the Sarajevo Symposium.

Scholarships are for tuition costs only and cannot be used in conjunction with any other reduction in fees offered by IPSI. Under no circumstances does IPSI provide scholarships for travel, visa costs, accommodations in Bologna, or food costs.

Available Scholarships for Bologna 2017:

Jimmy Carter Scholarship

Standard Tuition: 3,699 EUR

Scholarship Value: 1,700 EUR

TOTAL tuition costs paid by scholarship recipient: 1,999 EUR

Number of Scholarships available: 9

Criteria:

Be between the ages of 22-35;
Currently be working on issues of peace and security
Currently live in a conflict or post-conflict country where you have spent a majority of your life;
Born and/or lived in a conflict or post-conflict country for a majority of your life;
Demonstrate why you are uniquely suited to utilize IPSI's trainings to foster peace and security
Demonstrate financial need;
Be willing to "earn" your scholarship to the Bologna Symposium through community organizing, as explained below

Current Rotary World Peace Fellow Scholarship

Standard Tuition: 3,699 EUR
Scholarship Value: 665 EUR
TOTAL tuition costs paid by scholarship recipient: 3,034 EUR
Number of Scholarships available: 3

Criteria:

Must be currently enrolled in a Rotary Peace Center Program as a Rotary Peace Fellow.

Rotary World Peace Fellow Alumni Scholarship

Standard Tuition: 3,699 EUR
Scholarship Value: 665 EUR
TOTAL tuition costs paid by scholarship recipient: 3,034 EUR
Number of Scholarships available: 3

Criteria:

Must be an alum of a Rotary Peace Center Program as a Rotary Peace Fellow.

Measurable Results of Funded Students: If selected for a scholarship, you will commit to 2 hours of community service for every 100 EUR in scholarship money. IPSI will provide you with the materials and support necessary to carry-out this commitment, as well as track your progress.