PRACTITIONER INTENSIVES

WHY ATTEND A PRACTITIONER INTENSIVE?

The International Peace & Security (IPSI)'s Practitioner Intensives enable you to gain important skills and meet leading experts in your area of practice. The courses are one to two days and rely on cutting-edge experiential teaching methodologies that demand a high level of engagement from participants to replicate real life situations. Practitioner Intensives are an ideal way for you to stay current on the industry's best practices as well as build your professional network in peacebuilding and security.

We look forward to seeing you in our classroom!
